

How Can I Help?

Chad M. Fox

"I value building relationships with clients that help them better understand their business and in turn enable them to make informed financial decisions that positively impact their business and family."

Chad joined Acuity in 2009 and brings with him a strong background in the agriculture industry. Growing up on a dairy farm has given Chad valuable insight into the unique challenges faced by farms and agribusinesses.

Chad has developed experience in a wide variety of areas within the agriculture industry including: dairy, poultry, swine, seed and feed retailing and related agribusinesses. His focus is on providing clients with tax compliance and planning, financial statement preparation, general accounting services and accounting software solutions.

As a professional, Chad is a member of the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants. He is also an active member of Weaverland Mennonite Church, where he serves on the finance committee and helps to lead the junior youth program.

Chad graduated from Lebanon Valley College majoring in accounting and business administration. He passed the certified public accountant exam in November 2009 and will become licensed in 2011. Chad resides in Ephrata with his wife Andrea.

