

How Can I Help?

Steven C. Hibshman, CPA

“Challenging business owners to focus on critical issues that impact the future of their business is what I find most fulfilling.”

Steve’s career spans over 30 years in public accounting. He has extensive experience in providing accounting and management advisory services to a wide variety of businesses including entrepreneurial companies and their owners. Steve particularly enjoys helping business owners in the following areas:

- Business Financing and Capital Structure
- Acquisitions & Divestiture Analysis
- Strategic & Business Planning
- Ownership and Management Succession Planning

Along with providing financial and key advisory services to his client base, he is Acuity’s managing partner. In addition, Steve is responsible for overseeing the firm’s Business and Consulting Services, as well as heading up the firm’s new business development efforts.

Steve is a graduate of Geneva College with degrees in Accounting, Business Administration and Information Systems. His professional affiliations include memberships in the American and Pennsylvania Institutes of Certified Public Accountants.

Throughout Steve’s career, he has played active leadership roles in numerous professional and community organizations throughout Lancaster County by providing them both financial and strategic planning advice.
